Hi All,

I just got off the phone with Tom Denhauer. Very nice guy who is looking to bring companies to Montana to help vitalize small communities. He told me how listing sites scares most investors off. We discussed where we are with the site and how we got here and that we are evaluating the potential listing of the site. He wanted a tour of the site so I told him to work through Steve Wright.

We also talked about Libby and it could use some investors as well. He let me know he is already looking at the port area. I mentioned Tina as a POC at the Port Authority and the Partners Creative group as other sources.

I think we can close this one out.

Mike, thanks for the clarification. I was thinking the same thing. Just to be clear—are you or Cynthia going to return this gentleman's call and re-direct him to CFAC's representative? Mark

I have been sending folks to Steve Wright with CFAC. They are the property owners and should be interested parties first line of contact. I asked John Stroiazzo this question earlier and he stated Steve is that contact.

All.

I just got a voice message from a Tom Denhauer(?) who represents a client that is interested in purchasing property at the CFAC site. He would like information about how he can obtain a tour of the site. Could you follow up with him? His number is 406-370-2279.

Thanks!

Cynthia
